- (2) The register of members must also include the class of membership to which each member belongs and the date on which each member becomes a member.
- (3) The register of members must be kept at the secretary's place of residence, or at another place determined by the committee.
- (4) A member who wishes to inspect the register of members must contact the secretary to make the necessary arrangements.
- (5) The committee may request the member to provide a statutory declaration the purpose for a copy is connected with the affairs of the Association.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION, DISPUTES AND MEDIATION

Disciplinary action

16. Suspension or expulsion

- (1) The committee may decide to suspend a member's membership or to expel a member from the Association if:
 - (a) the member contravenes any of these rules; or
 - (b) the member acts detrimentally to the interests of the Association.
- (2) The secretary must give the member written notice of the proposed suspension or expulsion at least 28 days before the committee meeting at which the proposal is to be considered by the committee.
- (3) The notice given to the member must state:
 - (a) when and where the committee meeting is to be held; and
 - (b) the grounds on which the proposed suspension or expulsion is based; and
 - (c) that the member may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the proposed suspension or expulsion.
- (4) At the committee meeting, the committee must:

- (a) give the member a reasonable opportunity to make written and/or oral submissions to the committee about the proposed suspension or expulsion; and
 - (b) give due consideration to any submissions so made; and
 - (c) decide:
 - (i) whether or not to suspend the member's membership and, if the decision is to suspend the membership, the period of suspension; or
 - (ii) whether or not to expel the member from the Association.
- (5) A decision of the committee to suspend the member's membership or to expel the member from the Association takes immediate effect.
- (6) The committee must give the member written notice of the committee's decision, and the reasons for the decision, within 7 days after the committee meeting at which the decision is made.
- (7) A member whose membership is suspended or who is expelled from the Association may, within 14 days after receiving notice of the Committee's decision under sub rule (6), give written notice to the secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator under rule 24.
- (8) If notice is given under sub rule (7), the member who gives the notice and the committee are the parties to the mediation.

17. Consequences of suspension

- (1) During the period a member's membership is suspended, the member:
- (a) loses any rights (including voting rights) of membership; and
 - (b) is not entitled to a refund, rebate, relief or credit for membership fees paid, or payable, to the Association.
- (2) When a member's membership is suspended, the secretary must record in the register of members:
- (a) that the member's membership is suspended; and
 - (b) the date on which the suspension takes effect; and
 - (c) the period of the suspension.
- (3) When the period of the suspension ends, the secretary must record in the register of members that the member's membership is no longer suspended.

Resolving disputes

18. Terms used

- (1) In this Division:

- (a) grievance procedure means the procedures set out in this Division;
- (b) party to a dispute includes a person:
 - (i) who is a party to the dispute; and
 - (ii) who ceases to be a member within 6 months before the dispute has come to the attention of each party to the dispute.

19. Application of Division

- (1) The procedure set out in this Division (the grievance procedure) applies to disputes:
 - (a) between members; or
 - (b) between one or more members and the Association.

20. Parties to attempt to resolve dispute

- (1) The parties to a dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days after the dispute has come to the attention of each party.

21. How grievance procedure is started

- (1) If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within the time required by rule 20, any party to the dispute may start the grievance procedure by giving written notice to the secretary of:
 - (a) the parties to the dispute; and
 - (b) the matters that are the subject of the dispute.
- (2) Within 28 days after the secretary is given the notice, a committee meeting must be convened to consider and determine the dispute.
- (3) The secretary must give each party to the dispute written notice of the committee meeting at which the dispute is to be considered and determined at least 7 days before the meeting is held.
- (4) The notice given to each party to the dispute must state:
 - (a) when and where the committee meeting is to be held; and
 - (b) that the party may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written and/or oral submissions to the committee about the dispute.
- (5) If:
 - (a) the dispute is between one or more members and the Association; and
 - (b) any party to the dispute gives written notice to the secretary stating that the party:
 - (i) does not agree to the dispute being determined by the committee; and
 - (ii) requests the appointment of a mediator under rule 24,the committee must not determine the dispute.

22. Determination of dispute by committee

- (1) At the committee meeting at which a dispute is to be considered and determined, the committee must
 - (a) give each party to the dispute a reasonable opportunity to make written and/or oral (submissions to the committee about the dispute; and
 - (b) give due consideration to any submissions so made; and
 - (c) determine the dispute.
- (2) The committee must give each party to the dispute written notice of the committee's determination, and the reasons for the determination, within 7 days after the committee meeting at which the determination is made.
- (3) A party to the dispute may, within 14 days after receiving notice of the committee's determination under sub rule (1)(c), give written notice to the secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator under rule 24.
- (4) If notice is given under sub rule (3), each party to the dispute is a party to the mediation.

Mediation

23. Application of Division

- (1) This Division applies if written notice has been given to the secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator:
 - (1) by a member; or
 - (2) by a party to a dispute.
- (2) If this Division applies, a mediator must be chosen or appointed under rule 24.

24. Appointment of mediator

- (1) The mediator must be a person chosen:
 - (a) if the appointment of a mediator was requested by a member by agreement between the Member and the committee; or
 - (b) if the appointment of a mediator was requested by a party to a dispute by agreement between the parties to the dispute.
- (2) If there is no agreement for the purposes of sub rule (1)(a) or (b), then, subject to sub rules (3), the committee must appoint the mediator.
- (3) The person appointed as mediator by the committee must be a person who acts as a mediator for another like-minded organisation if the appointment of a mediator was requested by:
 - (a) a member; or
 - (b) a party to a dispute; or
 - (c) a party to a dispute and the dispute is between one or more members and the Association.

25. Mediation process

- (1) The parties to the mediation must attempt in good faith to settle the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- (2) Each party to the mediation must give the mediator a written statement of the issues that need to be considered at the mediation at least 5 days before the mediation takes place.
- (3) In conducting the mediation, the mediator must:
 - (a) give each party to the mediation every opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) allow each party to the mediation to give due consideration to any written statement given by another party; and
 - (c) ensure that natural justice is given to the parties to the mediation throughout the mediation process.

- (4) The mediator cannot determine the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- (5) The mediation must be confidential, and any information given at the mediation cannot be used in any other proceedings that take place in relation to the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- (6) The costs of the mediation are to be paid by the party or parties to the mediation that requested the appointment of the mediator.
- (7) An application may be made to the State Administrative Tribunal to have a dispute determined if the dispute has not been resolved under the above procedure

26. If mediation results in decision to suspend or expel being revoked

If:

- (1) mediation takes place because a member whose membership is suspended or who is expelled from the Association gives notice; and
- (2) as the result of the mediation, the decision to suspend the member's membership or expel the member is revoked that revocation does not affect the validity of any decision made at a committee meeting or general meeting during the period of suspension or expulsion.

- (1) Notice of each committee meeting must be given to each committee member at least 48 hours before the time of the meeting.
- (2) The notice must state the date, time and place of the meeting and must describe the general nature of the business to be conducted at the meeting.
- (3) Unless sub rule (4) applies, the only business that may be conducted at the meeting is the business described in the notice.
- (4) Urgent business that has not been described in the notice may be conducted at the meeting if the committee members at the meeting unanimously agree to treat that business as urgent.

46. Procedure and order of business

- (1) The chairperson must preside as chairperson of each committee meeting.
- (2) If the chairperson is absent or are unwilling to act as chairperson of a meeting, the committee members at the meeting must choose one of them to act as chairperson of the meeting.
- (3) The order of business and procedures at a committee meeting may be determined by the committee members at the meeting.
- (4) A member or other person who is not a committee member may attend a committee meeting if invited to do so by the committee.
- (5) A person invited under sub rule (4) to attend a committee meeting:
 - (a) has no right to any agenda, minutes or other document circulated at the meeting; and
 - (b) must not comment about any matter discussed at the meeting unless invited by the committee to do so; and
 - (c) cannot vote on any matter that is to be decided at the meeting.

47. Use of technology to be present at committee meetings

- (1) The presence of a committee member at a committee meeting need not be by attendance in person but may be by that committee member and each other committee member at the meeting being simultaneously in contact by telephone or other means of instantaneous communication.
- (2) A member who participates in a committee meeting as allowed under sub rule (1) is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, the member is taken to have voted in person.

48. Quorum for committee meetings

- (1) Subject to rule 44(4) no business is to be conducted at a committee meeting unless a quorum is present.
- (2) At least 50% of the committee members constitute a quorum for the conduct of the business of a committee meeting.
- (3) If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the notified commencement time of a committee meeting:
 - (a) in the case of a special meeting, the meeting lapses; or
 - (b) otherwise, the meeting is adjourned to the same time, day and place in the following week.
- (4) If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the commencement time of a committee meeting held under sub rule (3) the meeting lapses and is reconvened within one month, at a date suitable for all committee members.

49. Voting at committee meetings

- (1) Each committee member present at a committee meeting has one vote on any question arising at the meeting.
- (2) A motion is carried if a majority of the committee members present at the committee meeting vote in favour of the motion.
- (3) If the votes are divided equally on a question, the chairperson of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
- (4) A vote may take place by the committee members present indicating their agreement or disagreement or by a show of hands, unless the committee decides that a secret ballot is needed.
- (5) If a secret ballot is agreed to, the chairperson of the meeting must decide how the ballot is to be conducted.

50. Minutes of committee meetings

- (1) The committee must ensure that minutes are taken and kept of each committee meeting.

- (2) The minutes must record the following:
 - (a) the names of the committee members present at the meeting; and
 - (b) the name of any person attending the meeting as a guest; and
 - (c) the business considered at the meeting; and
 - (d) any motion on which a vote is taken at the meeting and the result of the vote.

- (3) The chairperson must ensure that the minutes of a committee meeting are reviewed and signed as correct by:
 - (a) the chairperson of the meeting; or
 - (b) the chairperson of the next committee meeting.

- (4) When the minutes of a committee meeting have been signed as correct they are, until the contrary is proved, evidence that:
 - (a) the meeting to which the minutes relate was duly convened and held; and
 - (b) the matters recorded as having taken place at the meeting took place as recorded; and
 - (c) any appointment purportedly made at the meeting was validly made.

51. Subcommittees and subsidiary offices

- (1) To help the committee in the conduct of the Association's business, the committee may, in writing, do either or both following:
 - (a) appoint one or more subcommittees; and
 - (b) create one or more subsidiary offices and appoint people to those offices.

- (2) A subcommittee may consist of the number of people, whether or not members, that the committee considers appropriate.

- (3) A person may be appointed to a subsidiary office, whether or not the person is a member.

- (4) A person appointed as a subsidiary officer has no voting rights.

- (5) Subject to any directions given by the committee:
 - (a) a subcommittee may meet and conduct business as it considers appropriate; and
 - (b) the holder of a subsidiary office may carry out the functions given to the holder as the holder considers appropriate.

52. Delegation to subcommittees and holders of subsidiary offices

- (1) The committee may, in writing, delegate to a subcommittee or the holder of a subsidiary office the exercise of any power or the performance of any duty of the committee other than:
 - (a) the power to delegate; and

- (b) a non-delegable duty.
- (2) A power or duty, the exercise or performance of which has been delegated to a subcommittee or the holder of a subsidiary office under this rule, may be exercised or performed by the subcommittee or holder in accordance with the terms of the delegation.
- (3) The delegation may be made subject to any conditions, qualifications, limitations or exceptions that the committee specifies in the document by which the delegation is made.
- (4) The delegation does not prevent the committee from exercising or performing at any time the power or duty delegated.
- (5) Any act or thing done by a subcommittee or by the holder of a subsidiary office, under the delegation has the same force and effect as if it had been done by the committee.
- (6) The committee may, in writing, amend or revoke the delegation.

GENERAL MEETINGS OF ASSOCIATION

53. Annual general meeting

- (1) The committee must determine the date, time and place of the annual general meeting.

- (f) any other business of which notice has been given in accordance with these rules may be conducted at the annual general meeting.

54. Special general meetings

- (1) The committee may convene a special general meeting.
- (2) The committee must convene a special general meeting if at least 20% of the members require a special general meeting to be convened.
- (3) The members requiring a special general meeting to be convened must:
 - (a) make the requirement by written notice given to the secretary; and
 - (b) state in the notice the business to be considered at the meeting; and
 - (c) each sign the notice.
- (4) The special general meeting must be convened within 28 days after notice is given under sub rule (3).
- (5) If the committee does not convene a special general meeting within that 28 day period, the members making the requirement (or any of them) may convene the special general meeting.
- (6) A special general meeting convened by members under sub rule (5):
 - (a) must be held within 3 months after the date the original requirement was made; and
 - (b) may only consider the business stated in the notice by which the requirement was made.
- (7) The Association must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the members convening a special general meeting under sub rule (5).
- (8) The special resolution must be passed by not less than three-quarters of the members of the association who cast a vote at the meeting.

55. Giving notices to members

- (1) In this rule, recorded means recorded in the register of members.
- (2) A notice or other document that is to be given to a member under these rules is taken not to have been given to the member unless it is in writing and:
 - (a) delivered by hand to the recorded address of the member; or
 - (b) sent by prepaid post to the recorded postal address of the member; or

- (c) sent by facsimile or electronic transmission to an appropriate recorded number or recorded electronic address of the member.

56. Notice of general meetings

- (1) The committee may convene a general meeting of the members, at a time and place determined by the committee.
- (2) The secretary or, in the case of a special general meeting convened under rule 54(5), the members convening the meeting, must give to each member:
 - (a) at least 21 days' notice of a general meeting if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting; or
 - (b) at least 14 days' notice of a general meeting in any other case.
- (3) The notice must:
 - (a) specify the date, time and place of the meeting; and
 - (b) indicate the general nature of each item of business to be considered at the meeting; and
 - (c) if the meeting is the annual general meeting, include the names of the members who have nominated for election to the committee under rule 33 and 34; and
 - (d) if a special resolution is proposed:
 - (i) set out the wording of the proposed resolution as required by section 51(4) of the Act; and
 - (ii) state that the resolution is intended to be proposed as a special resolution; and
 - (iii) comply with rule 54.

57. Proxies

- (1) A member may appoint in writing another member to be the proxy of the appointing member and to attend, and vote on behalf of the appointing member at any general meeting, annual general meeting or special meeting.

58. Presiding member and quorum for general meetings

- (1) The chairperson must preside as chairperson of each general meeting.
- (2) If the chairperson is absent or are unwilling to act as chairperson of a general meeting, the committee members at the meeting must choose one of them to act as chairperson of the meeting.
- (3) No business is to be conducted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present.
- (4) At least 7 members, who are personally present and entitled to vote will constitute a quorum for the conduct of business at a general meeting.

- (5) If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the notified commencement time of a general meeting:
 - (a) in the case of a special general meeting, the meeting lapses; or
 - (b) in the case of the annual general meeting, the meeting is adjourned to:
 - (i) the same time and day in the following week; and
 - (ii) the same place, unless the chairperson specifies another place at the time of the adjournment or written notice of another place is given to the members before the day to which the meeting is adjourned.

59. Adjournment of general meeting

- (1) The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of a majority of the ordinary members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting to another time at the same place or at another place.
- (2) Without limiting sub rule (1), a meeting may be adjourned —
 - (a) if there is insufficient time to deal with the business at hand; or
 - (b) to give the members more time to consider an item of business.
- (3) No business may be conducted on the resumption of an adjourned meeting other than the business that remained unfinished when the meeting was adjourned.

60. Voting at general meeting

- (1) On any question arising at a general meeting —
